UNIVERSITY OF LONDON,

BURLINGTON GARDENS, W.

22 May 1889

Dear Prof: Fitzgerald

I have summoned the two D.Sc. Candidates to meet you here on June 12th, at 10.30. o'clock & will provide you & them with as good accommodation as I can. Don't forget last year you had

two extra Applicants, Dr. Dixon & Dr. Hunt,
The number of Candidates this year will I think be fewer by at least two hundred & there will be an additional week for revising the Papers. You will, therefore, probably be able to do with one extra Applicant & I will arrange with whichever of the two above named

gentlemen you prefer as soon as I ascertain the total entry & that the work is more than the regular Applicants can dispose of. I should be afraid that the Lecturers in Chemistry will have their hands quite full in looking after their own Candidates at so large an Examination as is the Institution.

Yours faithfully
Arthur Milman
