Dear Professor Fitzgerald

By the time this letter reaches you, I hope you will have received a little volume which I directed my Publisher to send you, — thinking the subject would interest ^{you} & also the attempt to treat it in a very brief & simple way. — I always feel that you are in sympathy with those who regard the Order of Justice as pre-eminently a Spiritual Order, & that, as well as your kindness to myself which I always gratefully remember, makes it a pleasure to send you any writing of mine which I fancy you would care to see. — I have attempted a very difficult Subject in this month's Contemporary whose title "The Law of Liberty" will tell you perhaps as much as you would care about, so I don't send you that. — I write from Heyworth where we have been for several months on account of my Father's very impaired health. — I hope you have kept well yourself, & that some day we may meet again, but it will not be at this year's British Association.

Yours very sincerely

Emma Marie Paillard
