ST JOHN'S COLLEGE,
CAMBRIDGE.

Nov 6. 1856

My dear Sirs

I have been so considerably occupied in advising them about Lovell's chair that it had not occurred to me to go in for it myself. However as it would take me away from the things I want to do in the near future and would occupy all our time, I think I must refrain from the attempt of growing rich and stay as I am.

I saw ~~Went~~ a month ago, and he had then no word of resigning.

I suppose you have some strong Dublin candidates: various Ulster men are here and in the field.

Yours ever sincerely

Hermon
