

27/15 Queerwood 12th Oct. 1852.

My dear Francis.

Return you Adie's reply; by all means put him in place - ~~to~~ not in the map a forminent one and not in the miscellaneous if you can afford it. I will submit the matter to an experimental cruise myself in a few days and hope to furnish a reply to this note which will set W. Adie at rest for ever.

Most cordially do I

I return Mr Taylor's kind reply. You must shrewdly avoid all the old topics of vexation (and still avoid <sup>them</sup> as not to arouse his & curiosity - You he must be treated I imagine on these subjects with ~~at least~~ apparent frankness for if he gets the idea that you are keeping matters secret, his own imaginations will do the rest. - Your care and the quiet of Lydenham will doubt not eventually make his cure complete.

I will send you Clausius's Loom and along with it the remainder of Heleehob's, ~~and these may~~ ~~be sent~~ Thanks further with reference to Ronalds - If any thing you hear for or can I should be glad to be made acquainted with.

Sincerely yours

Lydenham
