

cloud is in motion and will soon vanish and let the sun appear once more.

When I am in difficulty I set into a rage and find a office of service to me - it lifts me across the obstacle and places me at the other side. You must not faint. I swear solemnly that you will beat down your difficulties and they will instead hide their diminished heads.

your own self
I find all

27/27 Sunday, July 27, 1853

My dear Francis.

I find you back Napier. duBois will reach you tomorrow. I have sent it through Bruce Jones but his corrections and mine should clash. duBois name is not to appear as he does not wish it. I have been pondering upon the you note of the 15th where you say you are almost used up - you must not let this thought get possession of you. Remember you. I know nothing in this life more necessary for a man than courage and there are inexhaustible sources of courage in the world. In our difficulties are great by ~~you~~ our own sufferance in most cases. Shake them away man like dewdrops from the mane of the lion. Doubt let fear get possession of your heart - the old bible say that it is the worst.

counsellor. Things are not so cloudy. The horse is chiefly within us and we magnify our afflictions - Courage I say again! ~~Patience!~~ I can ~~come~~ hardly conceive of a man being overwhelmed except when a Railway embankment, a something of the kind falls upon him, You must not suffer yourself to be overwhelmed.
You'll never do - The darkest