

published in 1535. It is not yet known in England. It would be admirable for the Icon.
Museum, were it not so large. It contains about 160 pages, small quarto, and a number of plates. It would be well if one of you would write to Challis or Francis Powell and ask him whether the work in any portion of it has already appeared in English.
I think not.

27/31 Sunday

My dear Francis.

I am rejoiced to learn that you have got over your difficulties successfully.
I wish you were here. The time is short and I am and myself are going to leave anxious - I wish you were along with us. The country is glorious. The corn-crops seem valued. The trees sprouting and the birds singing - God knows I want a few hours rest. my the lining of my skull is creeping and simmering. but the post air will set me all right again.

I am working hard at my lectures. Thank you for the bit of intelligence from Sabine.

~~My~~ The circular will do admirably. I think Your remarks regarding the stamps &c are quite to the point - let it be addressed to you. Herot is in Paris.

Had a note from him this morning - he will probably come to fill my place here.
- On second thoughts I would not put stamps on the circulars. The man who would let this be an obstacle is not worth ~~the~~ hearing from. But you will be the best judge yourself. I have not yet a shaded work on the Reigns Ercheimyeu of Schwerd. though
