

27/35

My dear Francis.

I send you 4
cards. The names of the visitors must be written upon them. I must make a struggle to see you sometime on Wednesday, though I don't know whether
I can manage it.

Said I think may appear as the promise
you assign - and for no other - for so far as I can see he establishes nothing.

Very sincerely yours

John Tyndall
