August 12, 99.

Dear Sir!

We intend to go next Thursday, August 17, that is one day ^{later} ~~earlier~~, than Mr. Linnor has written you, to Dublin, where we shall arrive an evening.
So we would be very glad, if we can see you August 18. Our hotel is,
as you have proposed,

6/86

Hotel Metropole. We shall expect you there on the forenoon of August 18 on any time, you will kindly announce to this same address.

Mr Prof. Klein has written to Mr Joly and has asked him, to agree with you about any suitable time, we can visit his observatory.

Please excuse the trouble and take our best thanks for the kindness with which you meet our wishes.

Yours very respectfully

A. Sommerfeld.
