Dear Sir

The enclosed letter addressed to you I found in the pocket of a coat at Ballycastle belonging to my son - he doubtless thought he had posted it before crossing to Rathlin Island, about 29 inst; where he remained till his terrible death on Sunday last.

Yours respectfully
W. Enagh

Dear Professor Fitzgerald,

Yesterday afternoon
I brought back the coil you kindly lent us; but the Engineering School was closed, so that I had to leave it at the front gate. I trust that will not cause any inconvenience.
I should have got it brought across tomorrow, but that I am leaving early.

Yours sincerely,

Edw. Edwin Glanville.
