

longer. I know about his Science but what is he as a man. He is said as Secretary of the Royal Dublin Society to have some experience in organizing Technical Education.
How does this come about Is he a man of wide views and sympathies & would he distinguish between the general interests of the College

Dear Fitz Gerald

Can you tell me in confidence anything about D. J. Cunningham. His name has been mentioned among others as that of a man who ought to be considered for the post I am to vacate at the end of and those of his Special Subject Is he liked by his colleagues & how does he get on in Society Well you tell me all you can about him I hope you are well & flourishing we were all sorry not to see you at Dover Specially as we understood that you were ready but I trust that has passed

Respectful regards to Mrs Lyjersale.
